

News Release 09/12/16

Smyrna Police seeking Public's help identifying robbery Suspect

The Smyrna Police Dept. is seeking help in identifying a black male suspect who illegally entered a victim's vehicle and forcibly removed her purse while she was inside. On 09/09/16 at approx. 1448 hrs, the suspect (picture attached) approached the Victim in the Walgreens parking lot located at 700 Jimmy Dr. He then allegedly opened the Victim's vehicle door, stated "Move your leg Mom" and forcibly removed her purse from underneath of her feet. This suspect then fled the area in a silver coupe with tinted windows and unknown Delaware registration. We are seeking any tips/leads on this case as well as anyone who can identify the suspect or the vehicle he was operating. We request that information be forwarded to Detective Eric Cooper by calling us at 302-653-9217. Tipsters may also send the SPD a private message on Facebook. Tipsters may remain completely anonymous.